Fall 2013 VOLUME 15 ISSUE 1

A PUBLICATION OF THE ITALIAN CULTURAL SOCIETY

ICS President's Perspective

Emilia-Romagna is the gastronomical region of Italy and consists of several cities famous for the following products to name a few: Parma prosciutto, salami, Reggiana cheese; Bologna—mortadella; Modena—balsamic vinegar; Emilia—cappellati pasta; Piacenza—grano padana cheese.

Besides food, Bologna is famous for the manufacture of high-end cars like Ferrari, Lamborghini and Maserati as well as for the oldest university in Europe and its medical school. Ravenna has its mosaics and Faenza and Sassuolo are ceramics centers.

Geographically, E-R has the Po River, the Appennines and the beaches along the Adriatic Sea. Three greats of the musical world hail from E-R; namely, Verdi, Toscanini and Pavarotti as well as film Director, Bertolucci.

At one time the Papacy owned lands there. As this year's ICS Area of Interest, Emilia-Romagna offers our members much to digest and appreciate.

Cari amici,

We are at the beginning of another season and I believe it will be all you have come to expect and more in terms of Italian arts and cultural programming. Ken Pedini and his merry band (a.k.a. the Planning Committee) have put together an amazing array of talented performers and speakers for your entertainment.

Our programming goal was to find a balance between fulfilling the ICS Mission and providing programs that were appealing to our members. In order to determine exactly what appeals to the cultural taste of our members we conducted a series of focus groups among ICS members who attended nine or more ICS events this past year. The group discussions focused on what they each considered the “best part” of last season’s events.

Four themes emerged from these discussions:

BEAUTIFUL PRESENTATION

FEELING OF FUN/ CELEBRATION

ITALIAN ORIENTATION

JUST ENOUGH EDUCATION

Understanding the members’ needs and wants is the first major piece in successful programming. The second part is converting good information into results. This is what Peter Drucker describes as “Moving from Mission to Performance” ...and here is where we excel. ICS is an all-volunteer organization and our greatest asset is the fact that our program volunteers know how to get things done!

Ken’s team has integrated the member feedback into an amazing program of events for the 2013-2014 season.

Visit Our Website at: www.italianculturalsociety.com

BEAUTIFUL PRESENTATION: We have programs at the Naples Beach Hotel, Grey Oaks, the newly renovated ($10 million) Wyndemere Country club and other exquisite venues in Naples. Dr. Mary Watt, known for her poetic delivery, will be back and our “Red Carpet Gala-Opening Night at the Opera” will provide an evening of Emiliana gourmet food and wine as well as elegant dress and dinner music.

FEELING OF FUN / CELEBRATION: the topic of our Welcome Back Lunch will be “Finding the Fun in Italian Opera” and SILVERSPOT will present Rossini’s zany comic opera L’Italiana in Algeri. Also, our Christmas Dinner and Red Carpet Gala will feature a prosecco reception and paired wine with the meal. We have made socialization and amicizia part of every event.

ITALIAN ORIENTATION: In January, the Opera in the Afternoon program will recreate Rossini’s Saturday Musicales with 5 featured artists performing favorites of Italian opera and we will explore Italian design with the talk “La Bella Figura” –finding the beauty in modern Italian design.

JUST ENOUGH EDUCATION: A “Live Interview with Metropolitan Tenor Bruce Ford” will explore life as a leading tenor as well as the story behind the film L’Italiana in Algeri in which he plays a leading role. Also our lectures will focus on Emilia Romagna and Le Marche’s contribution to the arts through Rossini, Raphael, Federico da Montefeltro, and the cultural heritage of Ravenna. I am very excited about this year’s program of events. Mark your calendar and make reservations early.

I look forward to seeing you at our programs and wish you a happy, healthy season.

Cordiali saluti,
Tom Turicchi, President

Welcome Back Luncheon

Welcome Back Rossini: Finding the Fun in Italian Opera Tuesday November 5, 2013 11:00 a.m.

Naples Beach Hotel
Joanne Berenato— Chairperson

Price: $36

Speaker: Tom Turicchi
Music History Lecturer,
President, ICS Naples

Join us at a new location for our Welcome Back Luncheon, and share your summer stories with ICS friends.

A plated lunch will be offered in the beautiful waterfront dining room of the Naples Beach and Golf Hotel. Our president, Tom Turicchi, will offer a multi media presentation exploring the comic operas of Rossini.

At age 30, Rossini was already an international superstar, with nineteen operas under his belt. That year he got a bit of advice when he met the crotchety, near-deaf German composer, Ludwig van Beethoven ...“Stick to comedy. The Barber of Seville will be played as long as Italian opera exists. Never try to write anything else but opera buffa, ‘comic opera,’ as any other style would do violence to your nature.”

Beethoven was correct...Rossini's comic operas are still performed regularly, especially L'Italiana in Algeri and The Barber of Seville. This presentation will explore the elements of Rossini's comic style and help you to find the fun in Italian Opera.

Menu: Florida field greens with sliced roma tomatoes, cucumbers and carrot twine served with key lime vinaigrette and creamy peppercorn dressing and topped with:
CHOICE OF: Herbed Grilled Chicken Breast OR Baked Citrus Glazed Salmon .
Rolls and Butter Iced Tea, Coffee, Decaffeinated Coffee, Herbal Teas
Platter of Assorted Cookies

CELEBRATING NATALE IN ITALY ....

There are several traditions that hold that the season begins on December 6th (Feast of St. Nicholas) or December 8th (Feast of the Immaculate Conception, a national holiday), when across the country people begin to build both public and private Nativity scenes (Presepi). The season continues until January 6th, The Epiphany, (also known as Little Christmas, the Feast of the Three Kings--I tre magi—and the coming of the Good Witch—la Befana—who brings small gifts and sweets or coal. As the State holiday calendar is legally tied to the Roman Catholic Church calendar for most of its legal holidays, everyone is home, around and available to pitch in. Town centers string their lights, and often there is a decorated wooden-framed pyramid known as the Tree of Light with a star atop (or a small doll). In the home, an old tradition includes the Urn of Fate, a large ornamental bowl with wrapped gifts specifically named for each of the family members. Then there is the continuous burning of the Yule Log (Il Ceppo) until New Year's Day (to warm the newborn baby Jesus). In the Province of Verona, on December 13th, blind St. Lucy dressed in white, rides into town on a mule going from house to house bringing gifts to children. In Sicily, St. Lucy, the patroness of Siracusa, is celebrated for having saved Sicily from starvation in the famine of 1582. In the mountain town of Val d'Aosta, a traditionally dressed Babbo Natale (Santa) travels by sleigh over snowy streets distributing

Opera in the Afternoon: Rossini's Soirée Musicale Thursday January 9, 2013 Concert 4:00 p.m. followed by a Reception

First Congressional Church, Naples
A Concert of Favorite Opera Music
The Cappallis and Campbells--Chairpersons

Karin White, Soprano
Ed Pember, Baritone
David Dash, Trumpet
Alexandra Carlson, Pianist

Price: $40

*T*his year we are presenting our most ambitious live performance yet. Join us to hear an all star cast of international artists perform some of Opera's most popular arias. Soprano Karen White, Baritone Ed Pember and accompanist Dr. Ron Doiron will be joined by Philharmonic trumpeter David Dash, and piano soloist Alexandra Carlson of St. Petersburg, Russia. Included in this program will be favorites from The Marriage of Figaro, The Barber of Seville, La Traviata and some delightful Art Songs written by Rossini for his famous Saturday Music Soirées. Though he wrote no operas after the age of 37, he retained an interest in the musical scene and composed several hundred small pieces for piano, voice, and various instruments.

In this performance of "Opera in the Afternoon" we will bring you a re-creation of a Rossini Soirée for your musical entertainment.

Our Talented Performers:

---

Karin White has performed throughout the U.S.A. and recently performed with the Miami Lyric Opera

Ed Pember has performed as a soloist for the U.S. Air Force Band for nine years, and has performed for three Presidents

Italian Language Classes Slated To Begin October 29

ICS offers Adult Italian Language Classes at The Community School of Naples in Building N, 13275 Livingston Road (one traffic light north of Pine Ridge Road), from October through April in an effort to provide opportunities to learn and speak our beautiful language. Our program coordinator or dedicated instructors can assist you with finding a class that is “the perfect fit” for your skill level whether you are new to the language, a seasoned traveler, or someone striving for fluency.

Fall Session is scheduled for October 29 through December 11 with a one-week break for Thanksgiving. The six-week session fee is $60 for ICS members and $70 for non-members for 9 hours of instruction. Checks made payable to Italian Cultural Society will be accepted by the instructor at the first session. Checks only, please.

Classes cannot be “sold” individually, and there is no refund for missed classes.

Contact Donna Lenzi, Adult Language Program Coordinator, at 330-606-8822 or lenzidonna@gmail.com to register or for more information. You will receive an email with your classroom number and instructor as registration confirmation. PLEASE NOTE: YOU ARE NOT REGISTERED UNTIL YOU RECEIVE A CONFIRMATION E-MAIL

Fall Course Offerings

---

Italian I is an entry level course for those with no prior Italian language experience. The instructor guides the class through pronunciation, greetings and essential present tense verbs using Berlitz 5 Minute Italian ISBN # 978-981-268-625-1. ICS makes these books available for $16, or they can be purchased locally at Barnes & Noble. Italian I is a no pressure class where homework assignments increase confidence. Consider registering early for this popular class.

Wednesday 4:30 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Italian III expands upon the introductory information and increases the complexity of conversational situations with expressions for shopping, dining, small talk, some elements of grammar. Past and future tenses are introduced/reviewed. The Berlitz book is used as a workbook for class and at-home assignments. Consider this class if you have had Italian I and II or the equivalent, or you need to review before moving on to Italian IV. Please note the new day and time for Italian III.

Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Avventure in Italia is a new offering for 2013 that will combine readings and dialog on a variety of topics to introduce vocabulary, reinforce grammar and offer opportunities for conversation. Italian III or the equivalent is a prerequisite for this class. A small fee may be assessed by the instructor for materials.

Wednesday 4:30 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Beginner Conversation relies on Italian I-IV or the equivalent as a prerequisite for a class where participants read, write and converse in Italian. Exercises that introduce and reinforce vocabulary also incorporate insights into Italian cultural situations. Some English is spoken to address complex syntax, structural or grammatical elements.

Wednesday 6:15 p.m. – 7:45 p.m.

Intermediate Conversation is conducted in Italian with discussions of a thematic, literary or cultural nature using topics provided by the instructor. Homework is assigned, and participant input allows for impromptu conversation in a relaxed setting. Beginner Conversation or the equivalent is a prerequisite for this class.

Wednesday 4:30 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

FYI

Italian I, II and IV, Avventure in Italia, Beginner and Intermediate Conversation will be offered in the Winter Session commencing January 7. Italian I and IV will be offered on Tuesdays at 4:30 p.m. Italian I, II, Avventure in Italia, Beginner Conversation and Intermediate Conversation will be offered on Wednesdays. Beginner Conversation will be the only course offered at 6:15 p.m. in the Winter Session.

Instructor bios are available at our website: www.italianculturalsociety.com.

ICS: Fifteen Years Old, but Who's Counting?

Before ICS came to be, there existed a group of Italian-Americans who banded together to socialize and enjoy each other's company. Known as the Italian American Club and located in a building at the corner of Airport and Orange Blossom Roads, their activities were primarily dinners and dances, the viewing of Italian-language films and card-playing. This Club eventually changed its name to the present Naples Italian American Foundation and has continued to this day its own social and cultural activities.

By 1998 some four members desired to form an association open to all Italophiles with an interest in a more diverse cultural program of activities that would not be in competition with the older Club. These four members were: Joseph Delfino, Edith Coleman, Corinne Dunne and Nick DiRusso. Under the name, The Italian Cultural Society, they began by holding Italian language classes for their members, and their vision soon expanded over the succeeding years to sponsoring events that today include Italian art, music, opera, history, literature, film, cuisine, the regions of Italy and their special significance—in a word, Italy's rich and bountiful Culture.

At the same time that ICS got underway, a separate non-profit organization, the Italian Cultural Foundation, working through the new ICS group, collaborated for some four or five years with an arm of the Italian Government's Organizzazione della diffusione della lingua italiana to underwrite a K-5 program teaching Italian in the Collier County's Laurel Oak Elementary School. To pay for this program, the members held many local fund-raisers. That program is now defunct.

Thus it is that ICS members today attend meetings, lunches and dinners with guest speakers, performers and specialists of things Italian at many venues in and around Naples. From this original group of four, the membership after fifteen years, now totals more than 400 persons and continues to grow. Each succeeding Board of Directors has expanded the scope and activity of the ICS to a level of greater prominence. And everyone is an unpaid volunteer!

Over the decade and a half, there have been five Presidents of the Society: Cavaliere Joseph Delfino, Tony Izzo, Alessandra DiCicco Higgs, Adam Crescenzi and our current President, Dr. Tom Turicchi. Together with their Board of Directors and an ever-increasing cadre of volunteers willing to roll up their sleeves and help—whether it is collecting tickets, directing traffic, greeting visitors, hosting or chairing events or just serving prosecco and saltini at events—the ICS Presidents have found a formula of enviable success.

Hats off to all who have played or now play a part in our exciting Italian Cultural Society of Naples, Florida!

gifts; the whole town dresses up. A special Novena of prayers and church services takes place eight days before Christmas ending on Christmas Day, and just before Christmas, children are known to dress as shepherds with sandals, leggings and shepherd hats and go from house to house singing songs like Tu scendi dalle stelle (You come down from the stars) and Astro del Ciel (Silent Night). Nativity Cribs are displayed in every church; in some towns they even compete for the most elaborate. The figurines are often lifelike and beautiful works of art (Note that baby Jesus does not get placed in the manger until Christmas Day.) Christmas Eve Dinner is meatless, traditionally a fish meal. In Rome there is Capitone—eel baked, grilled or fried. Naples and parts of Campania serve a minimum of seven fishes (la Vagilia), and spaghetti with anchovies (il Cenone) is often the primo piatto. In many towns in southern Italy there still are seen gaily dressed bagpipers and flute players, zampognari and pifferai, who play outside churches and in town squares. In the North, pig's leg (lo zampone) and stuffed pig's foot (il cotichino) and sausages or lamb stuffed with lentils are served. Emilia-Romagna features stuffed pasta (tortellini) in brodo and boiled meat with an eggplant salsa. Traditional desserts include torrone, panettone, pandoro and panforte with prosecco or Bombardino; also struffoli, cannoli and caggionetti. On January 6th, the twelfth day of Christmas, is celebrated the Epiphany. The night before children put up their stockings in anticipation of receiving the visit from La Befana. Also noteworthy is the secular tradition of taking una settimana bianca over the holidays—a ski-week in the mountains. The day following Il Giorno della Befana, everyone is back to school and work.

The ICS Board and members would like to take this opportunity to thank the chairpersons for all this year's ICS events. Without them none of these programs would be possible. These folks are:

Joanne Berenato, Marcia Campbell, Paula and Richard Cappalli, Jean DiPierro, Frank and Millie Iarossi, Fred Luconi, Grace Mannino, Ken Pedini, Amy Rego, Cathy Stenza, Tom Turrichi.

We would also like especially to thank our retiring amici editor, Donna Lenzi. amici under her leadership has been a professional, informative and entertaining publication of which all ICS members can be proud.

Donna will continue this year as the 2nd VP. As retiring amici editor, she will be a very hard act to follow !

ITALIAN FILM SERIES

All films are shown at the Norris Center (755 8th Ave. South.) It is located at the corner of 8th Avenue South and 8th Street South. The showings begin at 6:45 p.m.
 Chairpersons: Richard Cappalli and Nancy Menaldi Scanlan.

Il bacio di Tosca (Tosca's Kiss) 1985 ---

MONDAY, November 4

Sara Scuderi, Della Benning and Irma Colasanti are featured director Daniel Schmidin's touching documentary about a group of legendary divas who are left singing out their days in the Milanese nursing home which Giuseppe Verdi created for retired opera singers. Time and memories have not always been kind to the women, who are left to reflect on their triumphs and failures, their heartaches and disappointments, and their love affair with classical music and performance.

This documentary was the impetus for Dustin Hoffman's charming recent film "Quartet" and, although it is more a reflection than a story, it is sure to strike a chord for those opera lovers who remember these women who once graced the stages of the finest opera houses in the world.

Habemus papam (We Have a Pope) 2011 ---

Tuesday, December 3

The pope has died, and, with the traditional Latin announcement "Habemus papam", the College of Cardinals announces the deceased pope's successor; however, the newly-elected pontiff (Michele Piccoli) declares that he doesn't want the job. Directed by Nanni Moretti, who also plays a psychiatrist called in to help the new pope overcome his panic, this comedy/drama follows the Vatican's travails as it strives to make one cardinal accept his destiny.

La luce dei miei occhi (Light of My Eyes) 2001 ---

Tuesday, January 7

Enraptured by a beautiful single mother struggling to save her shop and retain custody of her little girl, Antonio, a gentle young man possessed of a vivid imagination, begins secretly paying her debts. Although his kindness brings him in contact with the harsh realities of a perplexing world, his never-wavering love for Maria and her daughter Lisa impel him to sacrifice his own security for their welfare.

A multiple award winner at the Venice Film Festival.
